

CHARLES RIVER STORY WALKS

What's Our Story?

Come on out and see for yourself what the non-profits in the neighborhood have to share. These five members of the Charles River Community Group will offer family-friendly special activities, each with at least one free component.

Come learn more about our story—and yours!

BACON FREE LIBRARY

58 Eliot Street, Natick

Come to the Bacon Free Library to learn our story -- our history, our mission and what we can do for you! There will be refreshments, a library scavenger hunt with prizes, library games, books to take out and our beautiful building to admire. Looking forward to sharing our story with you!

THE ELIOT CHURCH OF SOUTH NATICK

45 Eliot Street, Natick

Members of The Eliot Church will be on hand at a table outside of the Bacon Free Library to greet visitors. The sanctuary will not be available for tours due to a previously scheduled service. All of us at the Eliot Church are well aware of the deep history of this spot, and the historic role of our church as both place of worship and meeting house. Today, in addition to our religious activities, we welcome the broader community to concerts, art shows, and other events. Join us to learn more, and discover a bit of our history.

NATICK COMMUNITY ORGANIC FARM

117 Eliot Street, South Natick

Founded in 1975, The Natick Community Organic Farm is a nonprofit, certified-organic farm providing productive open space, farm products, and hands-on education for all ages, year-round. Committed to farming methods that are ecologically healthy and sustainable, the Farm places special emphasis on service to youth through year-round classes, work-experience programs and volunteer opportunities for working the land. With your help, we can continue our work of fostering community goodwill through the love of the land. Come explore! The farm is open all daylight hours for your visits and purchases.

NATICK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

58 Eliot Street, Natick

Here is the place to find out about all things Natick—landmarks and landscapes, personalities and peculiarities, events and experiences. Founded in 1870, the NHS celebrates our community's rich history from pre-history until today through our museum, archives, and educational programs. Puzzles, treasure hunts, and renewed exhibits will be waiting for you to enjoy!
